

Northern Kentucky
Justice and Peace Committee
A program of Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center

VOLUNTEER MENTORS for women and men who will soon be released from prison and entering the local community are needed. You can make a positive impact in someone's life through this "Second Chance Program". All you need are good communication skills and commitment to service. Small stipend paid. For more information contact: David Phillips at 859.581.8974 ext. 117 or dphillips@covingtoncharities.org.

REMEMBERING 911
OBSERVANCES are being planned through Kentucky. 2011 marks the 10th anniversary of this tragedy. If you would like to participate in the planning and/or implementation, please call Sr. Dorothy Schuette at 291-2288.

WE NEED YOU TO SPREAD THE WORD— Tell your friends who are educators about our September 24 workshop on immigration (see page 2) or send contact info to alice@ijpc-cincinnati.org and we'll send a special invitation.

JUST ABOUT KENTUCKY

Kentucky Friends,
Here is your first issue of a newsletter dedicated just to news from Kentucky and opportunities especially for Northern Kentuckians. We plan to email these to you 4 times a year—July, November, January, and April. The format is simple. The content depends on what you want to share and know about. Please feel free to forward it on to friends, in fact we would like you to. If you have information you would like to share, email it to alice@ijpc-cincinnati.org and we'll see what we can do. This is our way of keeping you, our email friends, updated and we hope, involved in the important work of peacemaking.

Sr. Alice Gerdegan, C.D.P.

COMMITTEE GOALS for 2011:

- 1) Education programs around Immigration and death Penalty (special invitation to educators)
- 2) Work with political leaders on immigration and death penalty before and during the General Assembly.
- 3) Form subcommittees to work on issues and /or projects. Members would follow one issue and share information and action suggestions at meetings and via the Northern KY e-list.
- 4) Focus on membership

Your help is needed to make these happen.

NEXT MEETING: Sept. 1 7:00 PM
St. Aloysius Hall of Mother of God
119 W. 6th St., Covington

THE NORTHERN KENTUCKY EMERGENCY COLD SHELTER NEWS

The name has been officially changed to Emergency Shelter of Northern Kentucky. The shelter's newly stated mission is: To provide shelter which is life saving in the Winter and life changing in the Summer. The vision is: We believe homelessness is an emergency and that shelter is a basic necessity for human beings. We believe that only when this basic necessity is provided, do human beings have the ability to recover from homelessness.

Visit their blog for more information:

There will be a 5K Run/Walk fundraiser on Saturday, October 15 in the morning.

STANDING FOR PEACE

A vigil for peace is held the third Friday of every month on the public sidewalk near the Peace Bell 4th and York, Newport 4:30-5:30

Who thought that we would be involved in so many wars? Now more than ever ordinary citizens must speak out for peace and an end to war. Can't make it to the Peace Bell? Call Congress Rep. Geoff Davis, (859-426-0080)
Sen. Mitch McConnell (859-578-0188)
Sen. Rand Paul (859-426-0165)

Keep their numbers handy. They need to hear your messages of peace and justice
