

A group created by the Immigration Student Organizing Program at the Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center
(IJPC)

Why you will want to join:

- To build personal & professional relationships with others who care about immigrant rights
- To build a network of student organizations from area colleges and universities and with other young leaders
- To have an opportunity to receive leadership training
- To stand courageously and speak out about immigration issues

Description:

Youth Educating Society (YES) is a leadership program designed for recent immigrants, both documented and undocumented, their friends, and international students to:

- Network
- Learn more about immigration issues
- Take on a leadership role

Youth Educating Society (YES):
Young Leaders for Immigrant Rights
A program dedicated to:

EDUCATING

about the immigration system and issues related

DEVELOPING

young leaders to take a stance on immigration issues

BUILDING

stronger relationships among schools and unifying youth from different backgrounds

STRENGTHENING

and facilitating the work of student groups to increase awareness at their schools

ENGAGING

people in the Greater Cincinnati community and beyond

From left to right: (back row) Sam, Christina, Greg, Luis, Mayra, Lason, Catherine, Curtis. (front row) Virginia, Fabiola, Lisa

DREAM
ACT
Committee

From left to right: Julio, Fabiola, Mayra, Elier, Jason

DEVELOPMENT, RELIEF & EDUCATION FOR ALIENS MINOR ACT

DREAM ACT is a bipartisan bill that will provide a path to citizenship for a group of approximately 65,000 undocumented youth, offering an opportunity to test their dreams and contribute to American society!

Our major focus right now:

- Educate about the DREAM ACT
- Work in coalition with local and national DREAM ACT groups
- Passage of a DREAM ACT in 2011

Visit Us on Facebook